did you know...

...that between 60 and 80 percent of the costs in most companies today are supply chain related?

Supply Chain Consultancy

Burman Associates offers both strategic and operational supply chain support.

Strategic support

Helping you to develop a supply chain strategy, supporting you in gaining access to new markets or new territories, aiding in areas such as change management, franchising, outsourcing, collaboration and supplier selection.

Operational support

Helping you to make significant improvements to your existing operations, from lead time reduction and stock turn improvements to increased utilisation and delivery improvements.

We provide solutions and support globally, to companies across many sectors, ranging from Automotive and Aerospace to the Retail, Clothing, FMCG, Food & Drink and 3PL market sectors.
